

Mar. 7th, 2002

FTC, Office of the Secretary
Room 159
600 Pennsylvania Ave., NW
Washington, DC 20580

RE: Telemarketing Rulemaking – Comment. FTC File No. R411001

Dear FTC Commission,

I am writing to express my opposition to the changes proposed to the Telemarketing Sales Rule. I am a single parent of a 2 year old and a 17 year old, as well as a full-time college student, working a part-time telemarketing job to help make ends meet.

I work for a telemarketing company, which maintains a company do-not-call list that is enforced. I have been instructed by my supervision on how to handle and honor do-not-call requests. Telemarketing means jobs. These restrictions might cost the people who can least afford it the opportunity to work.

Once again, I would like to stress my opposition and concern regarding the proposed revisions to the Telemarketing Sales Rule. Please accept this letter for consideration before implementing any of the proposed changes. If I can provide you with additional information or testimony, feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

Caria Williams

Caria Williams

FTC, Office of Secretary
Room 159
1600 Pennsylvania Ave N.W.,
Washington, DC 20580

RE: Telemarketing Rulemaking-Comment
FTC File # R411001

To FTC Commission,

I'm writing to let you know I am against your revision for Telemarketing Sales Rules. This new rule will only cause hardworking parents, single parents, college students, and some high school students to lose their job.

I work for a Telemarketing company who on a regular basis informs me of any Do-not-call list updates. Being on the phone shows me that for those people who do not want Telemarketers
calling, then they don't receive those calls, because they decided to use one of the many products available to them,
through the phone company, store, and more.
I feel that if a phone line is open to a Telemarketing company then these people use the many products available.

though the Telemarketing Industries.
I ask that you reconsider your position on the Federal Do-not-Call list, it will just be a waste of money for all concerned parties.

Thank You
Mary Williams
(Promoted to be a Telephone Sales Rep)

Mar. 7th, 2002

FTC, Office of the Secretary
Room 159
600 Pennsylvania Ave., NW
Washington, DC 20580

RE: Telemarketing Rulemaking – Comment. FTC File No. R411001

Dear FTC Commission,

I am writing to express my opposition to the changes proposed to the Telemarketing Sales Rule. I am a single parent, working a part-time telemarketing job to help make ends meet.

I work for a telemarketing company, which maintains a company do-not-call list that is enforced. I have been instructed by my supervision on how to handle and honor do-not-call requests. Telemarketing means jobs. These restrictions might cost the people who can least afford it the opportunity to work.

Once again, I would like to stress my opposition and concern regarding the proposed revisions to the Telemarketing Sales Rule. Please accept this letter for consideration before implementing any of the proposed changes. If I can provide you with additional information or testimony, feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

Mable Wilson

Mable Wilson

Mable Wilson

[Redacted]
[Redacted]
[Redacted] Fla [Redacted]

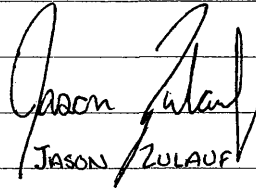

3/8/02

To whom it may concern,

This letter is in opposition to the proposal of the F.T.C. National Do Not Call List. There are many wonderful programs run by the non profit and charitable organizations. They depend on public support. The technology today has made it fast and easy to access support. We shouldn't turn it around and let our technological advances work against our public.

Jason ZULAUF

[REDACTED]
FI [REDACTED]

JASON ZULAUF